

JOUJOUKA JUSTICE

MASTER MUSICIANS OF JOUJOUKA

to eat sometimes a daily concern. When Bachir got the advance for the Pipes of Pan CD, we were working with Mujihed Mujdouble, the great star of Pipes of Pan.. He died for the want of very basic and inexpensive medical care he couldn't afford.

Bachir Attar says the word Joujouka means "Something good for you." The word Jajouka certainly means "Something good for Bachir Attar." He spells his group with an a because the Joujouka name is protected for the Musicians in Joujouka by government-approved registration since 1968.

Check it out for yourself. Soon you will be listening to the music and looking at Bachir Attar. Remember they're trying to entertain you - not trying to fulfill the subversive Joujouka agenda Burroughs, Gysin, and Jones found so compelling. You can hear that music every night around the oil lamps in Joujouka. It's not here tonight. Bachir is here to collect his fee, to do something about his crossover potential.

If you'd like more information on this controversy, or about Joujouka in general, please get in touch. If you think you could help in getting a forum for the people of Joujouka, let us know. Between us, we've lived in Joujouka for two years, documenting the music and getting to know the families there.

Genesis says he lives with Bachir in New York. Naturally he wants to give his pal a little exposure. We think it's good that he gets a little exposure too.

Islamic Diggers have collaborated with Joujouka, Scanner, produced Marianne Faithfull with the Master Musicians of Joujouka, written the only biography of Brion Gysin. They've worked with William Burroughs, Lydia Lunch, and the Estate of Brion Gysin. They collaborated with Genesis P. Orridge on the Radio Alamut artzine which features a Genesis Curse, and on the Flickers of the Dreamachine book. Their 1992 Here To Go Show with Joujouka, Burroughs, Hakim Bey, and Ira Cohen celebrated the Brion Gysin/Burroughs collaborations. It is documented on the 10% File Under Burroughs CD and the Destroy All Rational Thought video.
